

“The Devil rocks with us!”

By Kilkenny Knights

When we start to rock the pubs,
hike around and kick some cubs,
drive from town to town till the moon goes down.
See, we never rock alone!

The old bar gets really cramped,
This night the mood will never be damped!
You hear the clubfoot stamping through the scrum
To the battling beat of the drum.

The Devil rocks with us! x2

Everybody is dancing to every chord,
Atmosphere is keener than a sword.
The whole dance floor stands in hellish flames,
You see everything in single frames...

Red eyes strumming the guitars.
Drink up your whiskey, throw away the jars!
Fiddling to the Irish Punk, isn't it pious?
When the Devil rocks with us!

The Devil rocks with us! x2

Sadly every night comes to an end,
The riffs got muted, the fire goes out.
We'll come back soon, you should attend,
Cause we need you there to shout!!!

The Devil rocks with us! x5
